Cher is such a good listener! She LOVES to learn and is anxious for a new family to continue her obedience training.

Cher was rescued from a shelter in Ohio where she was surrendered by her owner, along with her brother, because they were moving. Ohio officials then decided they would no longer adopt out "pit bull type" dogs and all of the dogs falling under this category were subject for euthanization. Cher's brother had already been adopted and the worried people at the shelter, knowing Cher is a great girl, sent out cries for help which were heard all the way here in NJ! Poor Cher has had a very rough start being moved from her home, separated from her brother, and then moved all the way to New Jersey. Despite all of this though, Cher is a fabulous little girl. She is EXTREMELY intelligent and shows tremendous benefit from the staff's training efforts. She is very responsive to firm leadership and handling, but being a typical female terrier she knows just when she can take advantage if given the opportunity! Cher absolutely loves to chase anything that moves and is great at playing with all of her toys. Although she gets along with some dogs, shelter stress has taken its toll and we would not recommend that Cher live with another dog. An experienced and active owner willing to give Cher the direction and exercise she craves would be ideal for Cher's new home.
