Zoey is such a pretty little lady! Come fall in love with this gorgeous face...

Zoey is a gorgeous, declawed, female dilute calico. She is very playful and loves lots of attention! Lately she is always hanging over us from her perch on a cat tree, and tapping on our shoulders asking to be pet. She will surely greet you when you come home and probably even follow you around like a puppy dog! Zoey must be the only cat in her new home, but she would happily share the household with a canine companion.

At times Zoey is overly generous with her love and gives loves bites so a home with older children would be best. Zoey is a sweet affection girl patiently waiting for a family that will spoil her like the little princess she is. Don't wait any longer. Come visit this adorable feline today!
